Welcome to Houston, and welcome to TexMed 2017!

The pace of change in our profession continues unabated. Storms of scientific change, legal change, economic change, and social change are regular parts of our lives.

As Texas physicians, we turn to the Texas Medical Association to help us understand the changes, to protect us from the effects of the changes, to adjust to the changes, and to play a role in crafting the changes.

"When each of our leaders and each of our members talk — in our communities and in our exam rooms — about what is important to physicians and to patients, we are unstoppable."

I have been a proud TMA member since medical school. TMA is a living, breathing, nimble organization. TMA is you and me.

I see an opportunity for us to stand up and be counted in every corner of this state because physicians are an integral part of every community in our state, and every community across our country.

As we come together, we are a force to be reckoned with. When each of our leaders and each of our members talk — in our communities and in our exam rooms — about what is important to physicians and to patients, we are unstoppable.

And that is something that will not change.

Thank you for all that you do — for this organization, for your profession, and for your patients. I'm glad we are here together in Houston renewing and celebrating our passion for medicine.

Carlos J. Cardenas, MD, Edinburg
Texas Medical Association President, 2017-18

TMA Alliance President's Message

I am thrilled to celebrate this annual meeting of the Texas Medical Association and the Texas Medical Association Alliance in Houston, the city with no limits! I challenge each of you here to stretch yourselves — to learn, serve, and have fun in this great city.

My association with medicine started at birth. My father was a well-respected transplant surgeon in Louisiana, and my sister and two brothers-in-law are physicians, too. I met my husband, Terry, at Baylor University. After receiving our undergraduate degrees, we left the state to attend school at Vanderbilt University. I received a Master in Science in Microbiology and Immunology, and he studied medicine. His residency required a move to St. Louis, Mo.

"Medicine is in my blood, and I am so proud to be a part of this wonderful medical family."

We stayed in St. Louis for several years until a position opened up in Central Texas in 2005. We landed in Bell County where Terry is now Chief of Surgical Oncology at Baylor Scott & White in Temple. Medicine is in my blood, and I am so proud to be a part of this wonderful medical family.

Next year, when we gather for TexMed/AllMed in San Antonio, the TMA Alliance will celebrate 100 years of promoting good health and advocating for the practice of medicine. We will have a magnificent celebration to honor this momentous occasion! Mark your calendars for May 17, 2018, and make plans to celebrate with us.

It's a rather daunting realization that I will be the 100th president of the TMA Alliance. I am excited and humbled at the very idea. It will be my pleasure to join TMA's 2017-18 President Carlos Cardenas, MD, a distinguished leader with a long career of service to medicine, as we lead our organizations during the coming year. But for now, enjoy Houston and TexMed 2017!

Karen Lairmore, Belton

TMA Distinguished Service Award

The recipient of this year's Distinguished Service Award is Robert T. Gunby Jr., MD, of Dallas. The award will be presented Saturday, May 6, at 9:15 am, during the business session of the House of Delegates.

Dr. Gunby is a board-certified obstetrician gynecologist who has been active in organized medicine for four decades. He received his medical degree from the Medical College of Georgia in 1971, where he was elected into Alpha Omega Alpha, the national honor medical society. Dr. Gunby completed his internship and residency at Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas. He joined the Dallas County Medical Society (DCMS), the Texas Medical Association (TMA), and the American Medical Association (AMA) in 1977.

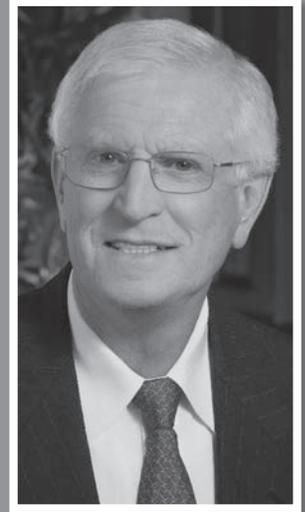

Dr. Gunby was elected TMA president in 2005-06. He served as member and chair of the TMA Council on Socioeconomics, where he met with insurance carriers to seek fair treatment for physicians. He served as a member of the TMA Committee on Access to Health Care, and as chair of TEXPAC, as well as TEXPAC district chair and vice chair.

In 1998, Dr. Gunby was elected president of DCMS. During his tenure, he led physicians' response to problems in negotiating with insurance providers. Dr. Gunby played a major role in the Texas Legislature's ultimate passage of a physician negotiation bill, which was designed to restore fairness in the contracting process.

Dr. Gunby is currently a member of the TMA Alliance and a Patron Member of TEXPAC. He has served as an alternate delegate and delegate member of the TMA House of Delegates since 1988. Dr. Gunby was elected to the Texas Delegation to the AMA in 1999, and for the past eleven years has served as a delegate in the AMA House of Delegates. He is the current secretary of the AMA's Organization of State Medical Association Presidents.

Dr. Gunby has received numerous awards. In 2000, he received the DCMS Charles Max Cole, MD, Leadership Award for outstanding service to the profession of medicine and to the community. In July 2004, he was honored with the Texas Academy of Family Physicians Patient Advocacy Award. This award is presented annually to an individual who demonstrates an outstanding commitment to protecting and advancing the welfare of patients in Texas.

Dr. Gunby has served as the medical director of labor and delivery and assistant chief of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Baylor University Medical Center. He has also served as medical staff president and chair of the Medical Board at Baylor. Dr. Gunby is currently in private practice at Swiss Obstetrics and Gynecology in Dallas.

Congratulations, Dr. Gunby!

Physicians in the Age of Terrorism — Stories of the Battlefield

Chancellor William H. McRaven

The University of Texas System's Chancellor William H. McRaven, a retired U.S. Navy four-star admiral and leader of one of the nation's largest and most respected systems of higher education, will give his thoughts on the educational system and perspective on the recent history of our nation's security.

The Speaker

As the chief executive officer of the UT System, Chancellor McRaven oversees 14 institutions that educate 221,000 students and employ 20,000 faculty and more than 80,000 health care professionals, researchers, and staff.

Since becoming chancellor in 2015, McRaven has recommitted the UT System to improving the lives of Texans and people all over the world through education, research, and health care.

McRaven's ambitious vision for the UT System includes nine "Quantum Leaps," that address significant challenges of our time, including building the nation's next generation of leaders through core education in leadership and ethics; leading a brain health revolution by accelerating discoveries and treatments for neurological diseases; elevating higher education's role in national security; driving unprecedented levels of collaboration between higher and K-12 education; and increasing student access and success.

Prior to becoming chancellor, McRaven was the commander of the U.S. Special Operations Command, where he led a force of 69,000 soldiers, and was responsible for conducting counter-terrorism operations worldwide. McRaven is an expert on U.S. foreign policy and has advised presidents George W. Bush and Barack Obama on defense issues.

In 2011, he was the first runner-up for Time magazine's Person of the Year and was named Texan of the Year by The Dallas Morning News. In 2012, Foreign Policy magazine named him one of the nation's Top 10 Foreign Policy Experts. In 2014, Politico named McRaven one of the Politico 50.

McRaven was raised mostly in San Antonio. He graduated from UT Austin in 1977 with a degree in journalism, and received his master's degree from the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, Calif. He met his wife, Georgeann, while they were students at UT Austin, and they have three grown children.

Objectives

Upon completion of this program, participants should be able to (1) describe system-wide changes in policy resulting from past accidental or terrorist events; and (2) discuss the ramifications of a weak national security system.

Target Audience

Physicians, residents, and other health care professionals in all areas of practice

Connect and Be Heard: Making a Difference in Health Care with Social Media (ETHICS)

Kevin Pho, MD (KevinMD)

Kevin Pho, MD, is an internal medicine physician and a health care social media leader since 2004. Dr. Pho, founder and editor of the popular KevinMD.com blog, will take you through his decade-long social media journey and show how social media can make a profound difference in health care.

The Speaker

Dr. Kevin Pho is a board-certified internal medicine physician and founder of KevinMD.com, which Forbes called a “must-read health blog.” Klout named him the web’s top social media influencer in health care and medicine, and CNN named @KevinMD one of its five recommended Twitter health feeds.

He is also co-author of the book, Establishing, Managing, and Protecting Your Online Reputation: A Social Media Guide for Physicians and Medical Practices.

He has been interviewed on the CBS Evening News with Katie Couric, and his commentary regularly appears in USA Today, where he is a member of their editorial board of contributors, as well as CNN and The New York Times. His opinion pieces highlight the challenges doctors face, ranging from the primary care shortage to the epidemic of physician burnout. His dual perspectives as a practicing physician and a health care social media leader highlight his unique journey. He enjoys sharing his story with audiences nationwide through keynote speeches and lectures.

Dr. Pho received his medical degree at Boston University School of Medicine and practices primary care in Nashua, NH. He is a member of the New Hampshire Union Leader’s 2010 class of New Hampshire’s 40 Under Forty, and a 2013 inductee to the Healthcare Internet Hall of Fame.

Objectives

Upon completion of this program, participants should be able to: (1) determine how social media can facilitate the connection between health professionals and patients; (2) demonstrate how social media can proactively define an online reputation; and (3) recognize how social media can make physicians’ voices heard.

Target Audience

Physicians, residents, and other health care professionals in all areas of practice

Civilian Response to an Active Shooter Situation (ETHICS)

Pete Blair, PhD

Saturday, 1:30-2:30 pm

Convention Center, Level 3, EXPO

1.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™

1.00 ETHICS

Dr. Blair will discuss the frequency with which active shooter events occur and remind us about the importance of training and preparing our nation's first responders and civilians for these critical situations before they occur.

The Speaker

Dr. Blair is the Executive Director of the Advanced Law Enforcement Rapid Response Training (ALERRT) Center at Texas State University. Before assuming this position, he was the Director of Research for ALERRT. Dr. Blair has conducted extensive research into active shooter events and published numerous books, reports, and articles, becoming an internationally recognized expert on the topic. He has presented for the FBI, Department of Homeland Security, the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the Police Executive Research Forum, the Canadian Association of Police Chiefs, the Texas Association of School Boards, and numerous other police agencies, schools, and professional groups.

Objectives

Upon completion of this program, participants should be able to: (1) distinguish what an active shooter event is; (2) discuss the frequency and other characteristics of active shooter events; (3) explain the challenges that active shooter events present to first responders and how they are being dealt with; and (4) specify steps that civilians can take to protect themselves in active shooter incidents.

Target Audience

Public Health: Critical Intersections with Medicine (p. 68)

Friday, May 5, 7:30 am-Noon

CC, Level 3, Room 351 E

Presented by the TMA Council on Science and Public Health, the TMA Committee on Infectious Diseases, the TMA Committee on Child and Adolescent Health, and the TMA Committee on Reproductive, Women's and Perinatal Health

This program will explore critical public health conditions that are required by law to be reported to government authorities.

Featured Programs!

Enhanced Perioperative Recovery and the Future of Surgical Care (p. 49)

Friday, May 5, 1-3:30 pm

Saturday, May 6, 9 am-5 pm

CC, Level 3, Room 361 B

Presented by the TexMed 2017 Planning Team and the Texas Society of Anesthesiologists

This interdisciplinary program is designed for surgeons, anesthesiologists, intensivists, hospitalists, internists, and emergency physicians, in all stages of surgical care.

Ethics in Medicine:

George R. Hugman, III, MD, Forum (p. 52)

Friday, May 5, 1-3 pm

CC, Level 3, Room 351 E

Presented by the TMA Board of Councilors

This two-hour ethics session will be a platform for discussing signs and symptoms of physician burnout and how to develop strategies to cope with burnout.

Let's Get Active and Healthier! (p. 56)

Saturday, May 6, 7-8 am

Marriott, Level 2, Montgomery

Presented by the TMA Committee on Physician Health and Wellness

In this active CME, physicians bring together health and fitness practices through modeling and instruction so they can share techniques and resources with each other and their patients, improving patient care and overall quality of life. Limited yoga mats available.

Poster Session (p. 65)

Saturday, May 6, 8-9 am

CC, Level 3, EXPO

Poster authors will be present to discuss their improvement projects, research projects, and clinical discoveries. You can vote for the Doctors' Choice Award, based on visual and verbal presentation of the topic.

Sponsored by TMF Health Quality Institute

Quality Payment Programs in Today's Practice (p. 69)

Friday, May 5, 9 am-3 pm

Saturday, May 6, 10 am-1:30 pm

CC, Level 3, Room 360 B

Presented by the TMA Council on Health Care Quality and the TMA Council on Practice Management Services

This session delves into the new era for quality, and implications for practicing physicians.

Sponsored by TMF Health Quality Institute

Telemedicine (p. 71)

Friday, May 5, 1-3 pm

CC, Level 3, Room 350 D

Presented by the TexMed 2017 Planning Team

This program will define the current status of telemedicine regulations in Texas while identifying and reviewing Texas Medical Board rules which frequently get physicians in trouble.

YOUR HIGH CHOLESTEROL PATIENTS CAN ENJOY LEAN BEEF

Your High Cholesterol Patients Can Continue To Enjoy Lean Beef

- ◆ Today's beef is much leaner and lower in saturated fat than 30 years ago.
- ◆ Heart healthy diets, even those including lean beef, can help manage cholesterol.
- ◆ Beef is as effective as chicken as part of a healthy diet to manage cholesterol.

CME Programs

AMA Physician's Recognition Award

The Texas Medical Association is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Texas Medical Association designates this live event for a maximum of 19.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

See individual course descriptions or the CME tab for credit designations.

Looking for an Hour of Ethics?

A number of presentations fulfill the one hour required for ethics/professional responsibility CME credit. Refer to the CME tab for a list of these programs.

Speaker Ready Room

Open Friday from 6:30 am to 4 pm and Saturday from 8:30 am to 5 pm, the Speaker Ready Room offers TexMed speakers a place to relax and rehearse before their presentations. Visit Room 350 A on Level 3 of the Convention Center.

TMA staff are available to answer questions and assist with audiovisual needs. Visit us in Room 350 B on Level 3 of the Convention Center.

Find What You're Looking For

CME Tab: Behind the CME tab, you'll find an alphabetical list of all CME tracks by date and specialty/subject area.

Day-at-a-Glance Tab: Behind this tab is a chronological list of individual CME lectures, social events, and business meetings.

Documenting Your CME Credits

Use the CME Reporting Form located on the first page of this program to document your attendance at each CME program. Please record all CME activities on one reporting form. At the end of the conference, drop your form, along with your program evaluation, into one of the CME boxes located in the meeting corridors, or leave the form and evaluation with one of our CME monitors located outside each CME classroom.

Staff will record your CME credits in TMA's CME database, and your personal CME transcript will be available for viewing and printing on the TMA website no later than June 9, 2017.

For more information, contact TMA Knowledge Center at (800) 880-7955, or visit www.texmed.org/transcripts.

TexMed Is Paper-Lite

To reduce paper waste and help keep your handouts in one place, TexMed attendees will receive a CD containing all available TexMed speaker handouts and other valuable TMA tools and resources. Speaker handouts also are available for download in the TexMed2017 Meeting App or at www.texmed.org/handouts; last-minute handouts will be posted during and after the conference. FREE wireless Internet is available.

TMA Member Services — Booth #549

How is TMA working for you? Come discover all of your member benefits, and start taking advantage of the many services that make it easier for you to focus on what matters: the care of your patients. You can also enter to win a $50 Amazon gift card by downloading the new TexMed 2017 app!

Continental Breakfast and Refreshment Breaks in Physician Lounge

Make the Physician Lounge your first stop each morning for a cup of coffee, a pastry, and a visit with exhibitors and colleagues before you head to CME sessions. Refreshments will be provided in the lounge during your breaks. Enjoy Steinway & Sons piano concerts in the morning and refreshments during the day. Recharge your personal devices at the charging tables, and read the live Twitter feed.

Disaster Preparedness Pavilion

Meet the mobile crisis outreach teams who would be deployed into the community to provide emergency care to people in need. Crisis experts will be presenting various topics at the Camp Fire Talks. See page 78 for schedule.

Town Square

Take a break from the serious stuff and visit Town Square! EXPO Bingo winners will be posted, so stop by frequently to see if you or someone you know is a winner! Try the Ping Pong Challenge for a change of pace — see how good you are and challenge your peers to beat you!

Networking Lunch — Free!

Friday, Noon-1 pm

Sponsored by Texas Beef Council

Visit with colleagues while checking out the latest products for your practice at the 100+ exhibits. Menu selected by the Texas Beef Council with your health in mind.

(A ticket, located in your name badge holder, is required.)

EXPO Lunch — Free!

Saturday, 12:30-1:30 pm

This is your last opportunity to meet up with new and old friends, chat with exhibitors, peruse the Poster Session, and visit the TMA Member Services booth. Enjoy a free lunch before heading off to the Closing General Session.

(A ticket, located in your name badge holder, is required.)

Poster Session

Saturday, 8-9 am: Author-Hosted CME

Sponsored by TMF Health Quality Institute

1.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™

1.00 ETHICS

Poster authors will host a CME session to share their discoveries and best practices for improving patient care, and answer your questions. Cast your vote for the Doctors' Choice Award.

9 am-1:30 pm: Viewing Time (No CME)

Posters will remain on display for you to view at your leisure.

See pp. 65-66 for a list of abstract topics.

Get Involved in the Fight for Medicine.

TEXPAC is the political action committee of the Texas Medical Association.
TEXPAC works to elect candidates who will stand with our physicians.

Learn how you can get involved
by calling (512) 370-1361 or by email at texpac@texmed.org.

TEXPAC

Texas Medical Association Political Action Committee (TEXPAC) is a bipartisan political action committee of TMA and affiliated with the American Medical Association Political Action Committee (AMPAC) for congressional contribution purposes only. Its goal is to support and elect promedicine candidates on both the federal level and the state level. Voluntary contributions by individuals to TEXPAC should be written on personal checks. Funds attributed to individuals or professional associations (PAs) that would exceed federal contribution limits will be placed in the TEXPAC statewide account to support nonfederal political candidates. Contributions are not limited to the suggested amounts. TEXPAC will not favor or disadvantage anyone based on the amounts or failure to make contributions. Contributions used for federal purposes are subject to the prohibitions and limitations of the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Contributions or gifts to TEXPAC or any county medical society PAC are not deductible as charitable contributions or business expenses for federal income tax purposes.

Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation, and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 in a calendar year. To satisfy this regulation, please include your occupation and employer information in the space provided. Contributions from a practice business account must disclose the name of the practice and the allocation of contributions for each contributing owner. Should you have any questions, please call TEXPAC at (512) 370-1361.
